Fashion's Demands

taught here and supplied. The "When" is a school as well as a store-where all may learn of proper attire. A few hours may be spent here with profit simply looking. Whatever is new in fashion's world is brought here for your inspection. You're welcome to see first and buy as it pleases you.

A Summary of Good Things Worth Your While to Notice and $18 grades, at .

See the Window

Swell dressers have a chance at our Finest Suits, $22, $20

Ordinary business sense and according to business principles, that's the stand we take. To sell a season's goods in that season, so without delaying till it's too late and every man has bought, we cut these fine garments down to the price of medium grades. There are a few very neat and handsome Scotches and a good many fancy worsteds. These are all high-class patterns, exclusive and confined to us. At $15.00 they are really marvelous values.

SUITS FOR WHEELMEN

The latest fad-dark blue, single or double-breasted coat and light-colored trousers; a great variety. We'd be glad to show you what is good form in cyclers' attire Full lines of Sweaters, Caps, Shirts, Hose, etc.-everything a wheelman wears. Choice of our Cycle Suits---all alike-$12 and $15 grades, at . .

Choice of those that sold up to $8.00 at $5.00. Choice of those that sold up to $5.00 at $3.50. We're Prepared for men with Fancy Wash Vests, for the boys with Galatea and Linen neat Serge Suits. Everything that | Suits, Fancy Waists-all kinds of warm weather demands.

garments for school or play. Two extraordinary sales of Men's Suits continued this week, $7.50 and $10.00

We're Ready

The $7.50 Suits are as good as others sell for $10; the $10 ones as good as others

30 to 40 N. Penn.

See them In Our Window.

OVER HISTORIC GROUND

PRESIDENT M'KINLEY RETURNS TO THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

His Trip Through the Shenandoah Valley Marked by Numerous Greetings and Incidents.

WASHINGTON, May 20 .- The President and Mrs. McKinley, with the friends who accompanied them, reached Washington at 5:30 p. m. to-day, over the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad. The stay of twelve days at Hot Springs was one almost entirely of rest, the Bridge, Va., a week ago. The outing has been of great benefit to the President and he resumes his official duties thoroughly refreshed and invigorated.

The party left Hot Springs last night and to-day traveled slowly through the Shenan-doah valley, rich in beautiful scenery and uoan valley, rich in beautiful scenery and points of historic interest. Thirty-five years ago Mr. McKinley, as assistant adjutant general on the staff of General Crook, marched through this same valley, participating in the heavy fighting which occurred during Sheridan's famous raid. To-day the President went over this same ground and from the rear platform of the special train which carried him recalled with great distinctness the places which saw so much through which they passed had but little warning of the President's coming, the roadways and stations were lined with people anxious to catch a glimpse of the chief of the Nation or to warmly grasp his hand where brief stops were made. Men and The scene was a familiar one to the Presiwomen of different colors, some of the latter bearing babes in their arms, Republicans and Democrats, Union soldiers and ex-Confederates, joined in the cheers and shouts of welcome. Flags were waved, flowers here Sheridan had his headquarters." showered upon him, and, if there is any bitterness remaining over the civil strife, there was nothing in the enthusiasm shown today to indicate it. From Staunton to Harper's Ferry it was the same story.

SPEECHES AT HARRISONBURG. The first point where a stop of any length was made was Harrisonburg, Va., where a large crowd awaited the arrival of the President's train. A gayly costumed band struck up a march and the President, unable to withstand the Importunities of the local committee which waited upon him, left the car and, accompanied by the gentlemen of the party, drove to the courthouse square, and, after being introduced

Made from pure cream of tartar.

Safeguards the food against alum.

Alum baking powders are the greatest menacers to health of the present day.

by Colonel Rorher, spoke a few words in reply. Colonel Rorher said:

"My Fellow-citizens of Rockingham County—The great honor has been assigned to me of introducing to you as President of the Market States of States and States are the special moved away greeted it with prolonged cheering.

AN EX-CONFEDERATE'S GREETING.

One of the most conspicuous features of the Market States are present Confederate. the United States of America, one whom we can call, for the first time in forty years, the president of a united country. There is no North, no South, no East, no West, but one at last and forever. We welcome you, our chieftain and our pilot, not just as the patriots of the olden time did our George Washington, as first in war, but as last for war, and first in peace." The President replied as follows:

"Fellow-citizens-I heartily join with you in congratulations upon our united country. We are now happily one in purpose and patriotism. I congratulate you on evidences of prosperity visible on every hand. We must see that this union of States, established by the fathers representing liberty and justice representing the highest constitution. tunities and blessings, shall not perish from the earth. I thank you and bid you goodbye." [Loud and prolonged applause.]

There was a similar scene at New Market, Broadway and Mount Jackson, except that only break being a day's run to Natural | the President did not leave the train. At the last point a huge frosted cake was handed to the President, to which was attached the following note:

"The ladies and gentlemen of Mount Jack-son gave a burlesque on the old-time colherewith present the same to the President and Mrs. McKinley."

Passing through the scenes of the battle of Fisher's Hill, Traveling Passenger Agent Dudrow, of the Baltimore & Ohio road, stood with the President on the rear platform and pointed out many of the interesting localities. At Strasburg an old man in the crewd that had gathered shouted: 'Mr. President, I expect you find it pleasanter going down the valley to-day than you did on another occasion," while another old Though the citizens of various towns fellow hobbled up to the platform and said: "I want to shake hands with you, and I am an old rebel, too." FAMILIAR GROUND.

The train stopped at Cedar Creek, near the old mill, which that battle made famous. dent, and he expressed that fact by saying: "This ground looks familiar, and there is the old mill, too. The Sixth Corps was encamped along the road there, and over Cooley's house was pointed out, and glimpses could be had of the pike a mile away. On this pike the Eighth Vermont have erected a monument to their fallen heroes. The rear car of the train was resting on a trestle work which crossed the creek. As the scene became more fixed in his memory, the running water attracted the attention of the President, and, turning to those on the platform, he remarked: "They drove us across this creek pell mell, and then we came back and took our old

Rev. Mr. Spiegel, of Cedar Creek, presented the President with a bayonet and bullets picked up by his little boy on the battlefield. Mr. Spiegel's house was used as a hospital on the morning of the fight. The President gave the little fellow a white carnation from his buttonhole and thanked him heartily.

A brief stop was made at Middletown. Here it was that Early drove the Union forces before them when they retreated in the early part of the fight. Kernstown furnished more interesting features. At the small station a crowd had gathered and greeted the President with One old Confederate, after introiucing himself, told the President how Jackson came up through the hollow over

A great crowd awaited the President at Wirchester. The ladies of the party remained on the train, while the President, Secretary Hitchcock, General Corbin and others of the gentlemen entered carriages and were driven to Hiram Lodge, where President McKinley was initiated as a Mason. The lodge now occupies a building some distance from the site of the old lodge. The President was received by Chaplain Hyde, Worshipful Master Willis and others of the lodge. From this point of interest the party was driven through the principal streets of Winchester out to the National Cemetery, where many of the President's old regiment are buried. From lost out one. Am on an island somewhere the coast of New South Wales." The coast of New South Wales."

each stop was the ever-present Confederate veteran, who pressed forward to grasp Mr. McKinley's hand, At Woodstock Gen. James commanded a Confederate battery at Kernstown, pushed to the steps of the car, and, taking the President by the hand, said:

"We of Woodstock are all here to greet and welcome you, irrespective of race, color or previous condition of servitude. I want to tell you, Mr. President, that this is the town Dutch Regiment went to the revolutionary war, and there are still some of their descendants here and they are still loyal.

are we" from many of the crowd. With appreciation of the humor and patriotism in these remarks the President replied: "But I am glad we're all together now."

Between Winchester and Harper's Ferry luncheon was served and no stops were made. Harper's Ferry presented another large and enthusiastic crowd. From Harper's Ferry to Washington a quick run was made, and the party reached Washington exactly on time. The train stopped just outside of the depot, where carriages outside of the depot, where carriages greeted the opening of the conference with awaited, and the members of the party were driven to their homes Those who returned with the President were Secretary Hitchcock, Adjutant General Corbin, Controller of the Currency and Mrs. Dawes, Dr. and Mrs. Rixey, Assistant Secretary Cortelyou and Mr. Barnes, of the White House force. The President and Mrs. McKinley drove directly to the residence of Vice President Hobart before going to the White House, the President desiring to inquire after the Vice President's condition. Secretary Alger was the first Cabinet officer to call on the President. He discussed briefly the subject of Cuban arms, and, having decided what reply to send to Gen-eral Brooke, went over to the War Department. Secretary and Mrs. Alger left this evening to visit a daughter at Harrisburg.

They will return early next week. After dinner Secretary Long and Postmaster General and Mrs. Smith made brief calls at the Death and Desolation Along the North Queensland Coast.

HURRICANE HAVOC

VICTORIA, B. C., May 20 .- Shortly before the just arrived steamer Miovera left Sydney for this port the cutter Mystery returned to Cookstown from the scene of the recent disaster by hurricane on the North Queensland coast, by which practically every vessel engaged in the pearl fishery was wrecked and much property lost affoat and ashore. The sights that met the eye of the relief expedition along the desolated coast were horrifying beyond description. In one house nor tree nor living thing was left. The site of the little settlement looked like new plowed land, and the survivors among the fishing folk had fled for safety to an inland town twelve miles distant. and further along the coast mangled bodies of men and domestic animals were found. Several were rescued with some difficulty wedged in the branches of trees that had the storm, where they had blown from distances as great as a quarter of a mile. The Mystery's officers and crew recovered in all fifty-eight bodies, of which mourning relatives. Of the remaining forty. thirty-six were natives, whose remains were given respectable burial in one great trench The Mystery party found large fish and wreckage thirty and forty feet above high water level and trees and vegetation leveled for upwards of fifty miles along the coast. An official report says eighty-six vessels were wrecked and that 385 people lost their lives. N. Z., last September on an interisland trading expedition with a party of nineteen, started out on her were lost. News of the accident reached Sydney in a bottle found at Stanwell Park, near Helensburg, N. W., on April 3. A message in the bottle said: "Oct. 26, 1898.—Schooner Werfa, Capt lost but one. Am on an island somewhere off the coast of New South Wales." The writer did not sign his name, and all who had friends on board have joined in sending Adjournment of the Reichstag Unti June 6. When Two Measures Will Be Considered and Passed.

COMPLAINT FROM AGRARIANS | sun."

Among German-Americans to Prevent an Alliance with Britain.

[Copyright, 1899, by the Associated Press.] BERLIN, May 20.-The Reichstag has adjourned for the holidays and will reassemble on June 6, when it is the intention to pass the following bills: Invalid insurance for postal employes, which will abolish a score of private postal institutions; the Gerwerbe Ordnung law, regulating the number of trades and an additional appropriation bill. The leaders of the different parties have agreed to pass these measures and leave the judiciary and other bills, including the meat inspection, until the autumn. It in her dealings with America. It is believed has been decided to divide the persons en- that an understanding on this point is imtitled to invalid insurance in five classes, at from 350 to 1,150 marks annually.

The rejection of the Midland canal bill by the committee is much commented upon by the press. From inside information, the correspondent of the Associated Press learns that this does not mean the defeat of the bill. In a plenary session of the Diet, Eminfluence to secure the support of the entire Left and Center part of the Reichspartie and some of the Conservatives, whose votes would give the bill a clear majority. The government is determined that the measure, which is the result of twenty years' de'iberation, shall not fail, it being claimed that such a canal scheme is imperatively needed in view of the fact that the state railroads are about to come to an end of their carrying capacity. The Conservative plan of constructing a system of subsidiary railroads will not be adopted. The main reason that the government, and particulariy the Emperor, so strongly favors the canal project is that, in case of war with France from the eastern to the western frontier | S. E. Herwig, the groom's sister. of Prussia would afford the best system for the conveyance of field hospitals and and his bride one year his junior. A rosupplies for the ordnance department.

The agricultural depression was heatedly discussed in the Diet this week, and much interesting matter was brought to light The lack of rural labor for the large estates in the eastern provinces was thoroughly ventilated. Baron Von Wanheim, president of the Federation of Husbandry, said that unless a radical change was wrought more than haif the holders of these estates would be ruined within five necessary number of hands in harvest time, even at higher wages than formerly. The onflux of Polish and Russian laborers during the harvest is wholly insufficient and for national and race reasons is not favored by 10,000,000 marks would be spent in settling small owners in the districts most affected.

The press and the government are much interested in the so-called anti-jingo movement started by German-Americans in the United States. Frederick Holls, secretary H. Williams, a grayheaded soldier, who of the United States delegation at the peace conference at The Hague, while here thoroughly informed the minister of foreign affairs, Baron Von Buelow, and the Foreign | Conference of Charities and Correction was Office as to the extent of the purport of devoted to a general discussion of the rethe movement. He carried assurances from | port of Chairman W. A. Gates, of St. Paul, Washington that so far as the movement went to the preservation of good intimate which the celebrated Muhlenburg | relations between the two countries, the ad-The German press freely comments with satisfaction on the fact that German-Amerwas one of those who shot at you. I am glad satisfaction on the fact that German-Amer-I missed you and now I am glad to shake icans have exerted themselves towards the re-establishment of former pleasant inter-

The opening of the peace conference at The Hague created little attention here. The North German Gazette, on behalf of the State Board of Charities. All such nonsympathetic editorial articles, but the Conservative and Agrarian press was either silent or treated the matter as a bagatelle The Vorwaerts reiterates its view that the conference is a Russian intrigue and claims it has ground for saying that Russia at the conference will propose a reduction of the number of the regular troops, which the paper characterizes as a "diabolical scheme," intended to bring about a league of the continental powers against Great

The Wiesbaden fetes this week were on a scale of unusual splendor, and the Emperor and Empress enjoyed them greatly. The production there of the Emperor's new play, "Der Eisenzahn," ("The Iron Tooth"), was the great social event. It was attended by a distinguished audience, the ladies being dressed in the Brandenburg colors, red and white, and the gentlemen wearing full uniforms. The royal personages were received by fanfares of trumpets and the audience rose and cheered them enthusiastically. On Wednesday, after the performance, the Emperor attended a stag party at the house of the manager of the royal theater. Von Huelsen, who is a great favorite of his Majesty, and upon whom he conferred a new decoration. The Emperor has taken great satisfaction in the performance of the play. which deals with a rebellious Berlin burgomaster of the fifteenth century, who was conquered finally by the ruler of Branden burg, the Emperor's ancestor. The play itself and its peculiar manner of treatment were interpreted as a rebuke to the Berlin city fathers, who are in a state of mild rebellion against the Emperor. A number of distinguished strangers were present at this perial couple and the ruling princes of Ger many. They included a number of English and American travelers. Among the latter were Charles H. Purdee and family, of Philadelphia; Alexander Nicholl and family, of Washington; Florence Pratt and family, of Boston, and Mesdames Moran and Sibley, of New York.

The imperial couple will spend the holidays at Potsdam in the usual way. On Thursday they will arrive at Cassel to attend the great singing tournament, and will pay a short visit to the Empress Frederick's residence at Cronberg, later.

The Empress of Germany will personally open the tuberculosis congress on May 24. The Grand Duchess of Baden and the Princess of Saxe-Weimar will also be present. The imperial chancellor, Prince Hohenlohe, will preside at the initial session. The distinguished persons who will be present in-clude the Duke of Ratibor, Prof. Von Leyden and the minister of the interior, Coun Von Pasadowski-Wehner. It has been re-marked with pleasure that France and the United States send a larger number of delegates than at first supposed

Her Majesty has assumed a protectorate over the Corse festival, at which there will be a fine display of flowers, on June 7. The Duke of Sagana gave a garden party of great elegance this week to mark his entrance into German society. The Emperor lately awarded to the duke, who is a Frenchman, the succession to the estate and title, on his swearing allegiance, as lord of the fief of Sagan. The party was attended by a number of fashionable people of Berlin, including Duke Guenther of Schleswig Holstein, the Duke of Ratibor and the members of the French embassy. and the members of the French embassy.

The relinquishment of his princely title by the former Prince of Isenburg is much commented upon. The step was taken be-cause his late father squandered his fortune and heavily encumbered the estate. The ruined prince will go into business.

The art exhibition of the so-called secession of the younger German painters was opened to-day. Foreign artists were not represented. The exposition is held in oppo-sition to the wishes of the Emperor. The rebellious young artists issued a declaration that they also wished for their "place in the sun." The paintings exhibited are not large, but some of them are remarkable.

The voluntary expatriation of Prince Gebhardt Von Blucher, grandson of the famous marshal, and the relinquishment of his seat in the Herrenhouse (or Prussian House of Lords) has also caused considerable comment. It is the first case of the kind since the Herrenhouse was established.

Hermann Wolfe, a leading impresario, has just arranged a tour of America for the Russian violinist, Alexander Petschinkoff. George M. Fiske, second secretary of the United States embassy here, continued, this week, his conferences with the officials of the German Foreign Office on the points at issue between the two countries, which are of great importance in negotiating the new treaty of commerce. The German officials still maintain the accuracy of their statis-tics regarding German imports and exports to America and claim the American figures are inaccurate, as they do not take into account American exports entering Germany at Antwerp, Rotterdam and other places and that they are, therefore, misleading. They still adhere to the view that the baiance of trade in favor of America and against Germany, in 1898, amounted to over 508,000,000 marks, and that unless considerable changes are made in the terms of the new treaty Germany would be a big loser

The army officers of Berlin have finally attained the privilege to ride bicycles in the street while dressed in uniform. While at Wiesbaden the Emperor was annoyed by the persistence of bicyclists, who followed him in swarms. . . .

Mrs. R. F. Paterson, wife of the United States consul general at Calcutta, is here with her daughters. They will spend severai months in the city. The Berlin Butchers' Guild has sent a petition to the chief of police against the sale A building in course of construction at

Crefeldt, collapsed to-day and killed twelve

COL, WARREN'S ROMANCE.

Weds Woman from Whom He Parted in Anger Nearly Fifty Years Ago.

CLEVELAND, O., May 20 .- Col. Edwin P. Warren, of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Fanny L. Reynolds, of Cameron, Mo., were or Russia, or both, a network of canals | married here Thursday at the home of Mrs.

The groom is sixty-eight years of age mantic story is concluded by the wedding In 1851 Colonel Warren visited Akron, O. He met and loved Miss Fanny Lutz. She favored his suit and they became engaged. A lover's quarrel ensued and Warren went Miss Lutz subsequently married George Reynolds, and the couple went to Cameron, Mo., to live. Warren aided in raising a regiment in Detroit at the outbreak of the civil war. He was mustered out a colonel at its close. After the war he went to Washington to live. He married and one son was born to him. Twentyyears, as it was impossible to obtain the five years ago his wife died. Five years ago the husband of his old sweetheart died. of travel, and last fall, while returning from a Western trip, he stopped at Cameron, Mo., by merest chance. He met Mrs. Reynolds by accident. Old acquaintances were renewed and former differences forthe government. The latter announced that given. The wedding to-night ends the ro-

PAUPER IMMIGRANTS.

Legislation Proposed by the Conference of Charities.

CINCINNATI, O., May 20 .- The fourth on "Immigration." Accompanying his report was the draft of a bill proposing uni form legislation for all the States. It makes ly to be eligible for admittance to state benevolent institutions, the limit for such residence being the same as for voting. If any person shall have been an inmate of any public or private charitable institution during any part of that year such time shall not be reckoned in determining legal resiresidents are to be returned to the cities, counties or States where they legally be-

A resolution was offered for the appoint-ment of a committee to request state legisin the report of Chairman Gates. As it was thought best to leave the matter to the referred to the committee on resolutions

Tribute to a Soldier-Priest. NEW ORLEANS, La., May 20 .- A handsome granite shaft, a tribute to the memory of the soldier-priest, Dr. Thomas Railey Markham, was unveiled to-day in Metairie Cemetery. Dr. Markham was one of the most noted pulpit orators in the South. He was a native of Mississippi and served at Vicksburg during the siege, at the battle of Franklin, in the fighting around Atlanta and in many other notable engagements.

HALF BLIND FROM ECZEMA

Three Children Afflicted. Whole Bodies and Faces Sore, Raw and Bloody Mass.

Tried Doctor after Doctor for 20 Months Without Slightest Relief. Crying Constantly.

Couldn't Sleep. Tried CUTICURA. First Application Gave Relief. Cured in Fourteen Days. My second child got eczema when seven months old. Three months later my first child got it, and following him, the last one, two years old, fell a victim. For twenty months they suffered fearful agony. Their whole bodies, especially their faces, were so sore and raw that the little ones were blind half the time No words can describe the suffering of my second child, whose whole body was one bloody mass. He was constantly crying, could get no sleep, and he actually did not look human. I tried doctor after doctor, but none afforded the slightest relief. I decided to try CUTICURA. The first application brought relief in each case, and after fourteen days' treatment with CUTICURA SOAP and CUTI-CURA (ointment), the worst case was cured, and the whole neighborhood is surprised at the wonderful effect of CUTICURA. I continue the use of CUTICURA SOAP for the children, because it makes the little ones look splendid. Nov. 28, 1898. MRS. ANNIE RING. 515 E. 13th St., New York City.

In all the world there is no other treatment so pure, so sweet, so speedily effective for distressing skin humors of infants and children as Curicusa, greatest of skin cures, blood purifiers, and humor remedies. A warm bath with CUTICURA SOAP, and a single anointing with CUTICURA (ointment), purest of emollient skin cures, will afford instant relief, permit rest and sleep to both perent and child, and point to a speedy, permanent, and economical cure, when all else falls.

Sold throughout the world. POTTER D. AND C. CORP., Sole Props., Boston. "How to Cure Baby Humors," free. MORS and Falling Hair Prevented by Meet Me at Saks' Corner, Washington and Pennsylvania Sts.

Miscellaneous Distribution of Suits

About forty pages of our delivery book -covering last week's trade-would remind one much of a large hotel register. Purchasers in the suit line were about as diversified in their professions as the occupants of the big hostelry.

THE $8.75 SUITS

Were patronized by professional and peas-ant alike—the cleric—the doctor—the lawver-the merchant-the mechanic and the laborer are all recorded here. The sale continues this week. There's big selling on a thousand suits-so there's big opportunity and big selection yet. Genuine $15 value in Men's

"Fit-reform" Suits for $8.75

The Children's Dep't Is always humming with us. No wonder-it's the most jealously catered for department in the house. Our assortment quadruples that of any store in the State.

New Arrivals in Novelty Suits ASK TO SEE THEM.

Saks&Company

Rich & McVey....

115 N. Pennsylvania St. Sole Agents

For 75 years known as the finest pianos in the world; also, Stultz & Bauer Pianos, Emerson Pianos and other leading makes.

Pianos rented and rent applied on purchase of any piano in our stock. See our bargains in pianos this week. Our prices on sheet music, music books, mandolins, guitars, strings and other small goods are the lowest.

Rich & McVey

115 N. PENNSYLVANIA ST. Near Grand Opera House Leaders in Low Prices. Fine Plano Tuniag.

AYUSEMENTS. PARK-To-Morrow : P. m.

FRANK LINDON And his Fine Company, presenting To-Morrow, Tuesday and Wednesday,

"THE PRISONER OF ALGIERS" Thursday, Friday and Saturday, "THE SIGNAL OF LIBERTY" Both Plays elaborately staged.

10c, 20c, 30c. Everybody goes to the Park. English's Opera House TUESDAY EVENING, May 23

James Whitcomb

In Selections From His Own Writings.

Advance sale of seats will begin Thursday morning, May 18. PRICES..... 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50 Gallery, reserved, 50c.

Entire receipts for benefit of the ART ∌ ARMSTRONG PARK € Sunday, May 21, 2:30 p. m.

Annual Gymnastical Exhibition INDEPENDENT TURNER SOCIETY

400 Pupils will participate. ADMISSION-25cts. After the exhibition there will be a dance in the Pavilion. Take the North Indianapolis Street Cars. ENTERTAINMENT Given by the ladies of Grace Presbyterian Church.
Directed by Mrs. Harriet Augusta Prunk.

MICK'S HALL, Corner Ill, and Twenty-second sts., WEDNES-DAY EVENING, MAY 24, 8 o'clock p. m. OLD MAIDS' CONVENTION, Including songs, recitations, scenes and violin by well-known talent.

..FAIRBANK..

Grand Opening Monday, May 22. Concert every evening. Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday matinee by the New York Ladies' Symphony Orchestra of 20.

Grand Barbecue, Picnic and Sheep Dressing Contest

FRANK W. McKEE, Director.

Armstrong Park. MAY 28. By the German Butchers' Society of Indianapolis. ADMISSION-10c.

BONDS $75,000 Shelby Co., Ind. $15,000 Indianapolis Gas Co...6s $9,000 Scott Co., Ind . . . $9,400 Jackson Co., Ind . . $8,000 Indianapolis, Ind. $3,000 U. S. Government 300 shares Belt R. R. ... Common

Price and particulars upon application. CAMPBELL, WILD & CO.

Than Half

We have received from the factory over 1,000 pairs ladies' fine low shoes with instructions to sell them at the following for choice of over 100 pairs small sizes in fine Oxfords—black and tan—regular $1.98 values.

LOT 1

low shoes-pretty patterns-regular $1.98 and $2.48 values all sizes-black and tan.

LOT 3 81.49 for choice of 400 pairs ladies' fine Ox-fords—black and tan—all sizes and widths—regular $2.48 and $1.98 grades.

LOT 4 $1.98

for choice of 300 pairs ladies' fine hand-turned Oxfords—regular $2.98 grade—all sizes and widths—actually up-to-date.

318-330 MASS. AVE.

Mail Orders taken special care of